

This brand is a recent acquisition. We have recovered and recorded a purely sentimental reason. This mark, along with La Odalisca were first registered by the founder of our family, Antonio Fuster Moñino. For now we only have the trademark but is our goal to recover the original design, adapting to the current legal requirements, packaging and market power have too.